If requesting an Employee/Agent registration, please include the names and addresses of employees or agents of the dealer:

This act shall not be construed to excuse a dealer from complying with the local zoning ordinance or any local ordinance regulating commercial activities. However, a local government may not pass an ordinance, or enforce an existing ordinance, that provides additional standards which must be met before the issuance of a certificate of registration.

Upon receipt of the certificate of registration from the Ann Arbor City Police Department, the dealer shall post it in a conspicuous place in the dealer's place of business.
