

SENIORITY AT THE ANN ARBOR FARMERS MARKET

WHEREAS, the Public Market Advisory Commission has committed to investigate the system of seniority at the Ann Arbor Farmers Market during the 2007-2008 season in hopes of further activating the Market; and

WHEREAS, their thorough study has suggested that the majority of vendors and market shoppers believe the current Seniority system is successful; and

WHEREAS, the aforementioned goal of market activation can be met without making alterations to the current Seniority system;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that Seniority will continue in its current manifestation, without change or discussion of change from today until June 30, 2010; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that comprehensive records regarding market attendance will be kept throughout that time; and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that at the end of one year, a final decision regarding the status of Seniority at the Ann Arbor Farmers Market will be made by the Public Market Advisory Commission, with input from the vendors and members of the Ann Arbor Farmers Market community.
