

Ann Arbor Farmers Market ~ Questions to Consider

The Commission and Farmers Market staff want to hear what you think about the market. Please take this sheet home and respond to questions below. You can mail your "homework" response to us at the market office, 315 Detroit Street, Ann Arbor, MI 48105 or drop it by the office on a market day

1. What is the best way for us to communicate with you? (please provide your phone/address)

___ phone _____

___ email _____

___ direct mail _____

2. About market operations:

a) what do you think is working well? _____

b) what could be improved? _____

3. The rhythm of products at the market changes from season to season. How can the market commission best address, and celebrate, these differences? (i.e. different rules during different seasons)?

4. What other types of vendors would you like to see added to the market? _____

5. We encourage you to share your thoughts & observations on the topics of seniority and stall assignment in the space below and on the reverse side. _____

A reminder: A new set of rules governing the market was approved by City Council in 2007. You can find them online, at www.a2gov.org/market, under the link Public Market Operating rules Please review them carefully. In the fall of 2008, the Public Market Advisory Commission will be gathering vendor comments on them, so they can be reconsidered accordingly.

Thanks so much for your ideas and input. Molly Notarianni, Market Manager (mnotarianni@a2gov.org); Peter Pollack, Diane Black, Shannon Brines, Ken King, Genia Service, Public Market Advisory Commission.
