Ann Arbor Public Art Commission Seeks Public Perspective

Public Art Survey Gives Citizens a Voice

The Ann Arbor Public Art Commission has launched a survey to gather input from the community on public art. The Commission invites the public to respond by going to <http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/YWGBJ8V> and completing the survey.

At the end of the survey period, the commission will tabulate the data and use it, along with other information, to develop future public art programming.

AAPAC was founded in 1998. AAPAC's mission is to bring to the City of Ann Arbor public art that improves the aesthetic quality of public spaces and structures, provides for cultural and recreational opportunities, contributes to local heritage, stimulates economic activity, and promotes the general welfare of the community.
