

CRIME ALERT

Elderly residents have recently been targeted by a scam artist who cons the victims out of considerable amounts of money.

The suspect is a black male in his 40's. The suspect knocks on the doors of elderly residents and offers to do work for them. The type of work varies from snow shoveling to cleaning gutters. The victim pays the suspect in advance and the suspect never returns to do the work. One victim lost thousands of dollars.

Please contact Det. Tucker at 734-794-6930 Ext. 49328 if you have any information.

Residents: Please share this information with your neighbors and talk with elderly people within your area who may fall victim to this crime.
