

CITY OF ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN

301 E. Huron St. • Ann Arbor, Michigan 48104

www.a2gov.org

Printed on recycled paper

MEDIA ALERT

Issued: April 2, 2009

Contact: Lisa Wondrash,
Communications Unit Manager
734.794.6150, ext. 41511
lwondrash@a2gov.org

Ann Arbor Municipal Center Groundbreaking Event, Rain or Shine, 9 a.m. Friday, April 3, 2009

- WHAT: The City of Ann Arbor is hosting a groundbreaking ceremony to commemorate the construction of the new Ann Arbor Municipal Center. The new facility, which began construction in March 2009, will house the 15th Judicial District Court and Ann Arbor Police Services. Project details are available at www.a2gov.org/court-police-facility. A continental breakfast will be served.
- WHO: The event will include a brief program as well as a ceremonious turning of the dirt. Scheduled speakers are City Administrator Roger Fraser, Ann Arbor Mayor John Hieftje, 15th District Court Chief Judge Julie Creal and City of Ann Arbor Police Chief Barnett Jones.
- WHEN: Friday, April 3, 2009, 9 – 10 a.m.
- WHERE: Ann Arbor City Hall, 301 E. Huron St., between Fifth Avenue and Division, second floor promenade (outside, weather permitting). In the event of inclement weather, the program will take place in city Council chambers, also on the second floor.
- NOTE: Photos of the groundbreaking event may be available beginning Friday, April 3, afternoon. Please contact Communications Unit Manager Lisa Wondrash for availability: lwondrash@a2gov.org.

#####