We’ve selected six trails in Ann Arbor for you to explore! We’ve also compiled some important statistics that will help you enjoy your hike through Bird Hills Nature Area, Black Woods Pond Nature Area, Cedar Bend Nature Area, Furstenberg Nature Area, Mary Beth Doyle Park and Marshall Nature Area.
1. Bird Hills
Total trail length: 4.16 miles
Topography: Hilly
Trail type: Natural footpaths

2. Black Pond Woods
Total trail length: 1.24 miles
Topography: Rolling
Trail type: Natural footpaths

3. Mary Beth Doyle
Total trail length: 3.26
Topography: Flat
Trail type: Paved paths, natural footpaths, boardwalks

4. Furstenberg
Total trail length: 1.12 miles
Topography: Flat
Trail type: Paved paths, natural footpaths, boardwalk

5. Marshall
Total trail length: 1.74
Topography: Rolling
Trail type: Natural footpaths

6. Cedar Bend
Located at 1495 Cedar Bend Road.
Total trail length: 1.21
Topography: Hilly
Trail type: Natural footpaths

TAKE A HIKE: Start here!

www.a2gov.org/parks | Customer Service: 734.794.6230