

PROCLAMATION

Honoring the life and service of Coach Sandy Sanders

WHEREAS, Coach Sandy Sanders is the founder, developer and director of the Sandy Sanders Camps of Champions; and

WHEREAS, Coach Sandy Sanders first basketball camp, back in the 70s, "got the ball rolling" on a lifelong commitment to bringing sports to the youth of Michigan; and

WHEREAS, Coach Sandy Sanders career in education began at the University of Michigan where he enrolled as an undergraduate, and from where his studies culminated in a master's degree in Administration, Supervision, and Higher Education; and

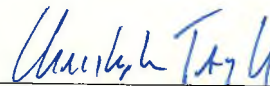

WHEREAS, Coach Sandy Sanders love of sports, particularly basketball, took him into coaching and into officiating - and his background includes these professional positions in addition to the teaching positions he has held over the past three decades; and

WHEREAS, Coach Sandy Sanders established The Sandy Sanders Camps of Champions, that created a legacy in Southeastern Michigan and throughout the state; and

WHEREAS, Coach Sandy Sanders dedicated over 40 years of his life educating and mentoring children of all ages through the sport of basketball.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Christopher Taylor, Mayor of Ann Arbor, Michigan, do hereby recognize the remarkable leadership and commitment of Coach Sandy Sanders while championing ideas and values, and proclaim November 17th, 2022, a day to honor his life of service, generosity, and leadership.

*I hereby set my hand and seal
This 17th day of November 2022*

*Christopher Taylor
Mayor of the City of Ann Arbor*

