

BLAZE & Blue

Summer camp for young women

Blaze & Blue camp is a free, hands-on program for young women 13-18 years of age. Participants will experience the most challenging and exciting tasks in firefighting, first response and law enforcement in a supportive, educational and interactive environment.

The 2022 program will be held Monday, June 27 through Thursday, June 30. Students will train with Ann Arbor firefighters Monday/Tuesday and Ann Arbor police staff Wednesday/Thursday, 8 a.m.-3 p.m. The camp also provides access to the women that work in these roles who are breaking down barriers and stereotypes in these non-traditional career fields. Registration will be open March 7-18.

Fire safety

- Fire extinguisher training
- Vehicle extrication
- 100' aerial platform rides
- Rappelling

Law enforcement

- Patrol scenarios
- Crime scene investigation
- Mugshots and fingerprints
- A day in the life station tour

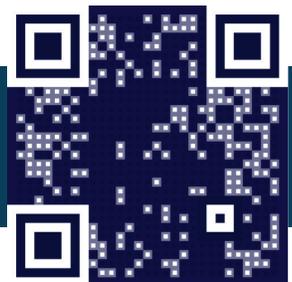

Lunch

- The camp is free
- Lunch is provided daily
- Receive a complimentary Blaze & Blue t-shirt

Register

- Sign up by completing the attached online form
- Questions? Email cjackson@a2gov.org
- Priority given to city of Ann Arbor residents before Washtenaw County

Sign up today!