Answer 1: Dykema will be our counsel for upcoming Ann Ashley bonds.

Question 2: Regarding Appendix A – Professional Service Agreement, VI Insurance and Indemnification; Part A – Requires that our insurance policies “protect itself and the City…”; does this requirement seek to add the City as an additional insured under our insurance policy?
Answer 2: The City does not need to be listed as an additional insured on any policy. This language can be removed.

Question 3: Regarding Appendix A – Professional Service Agreement, XVI Conflicts of Interest or Representation; Will the City agree to the general advance consent language included in our standard terms?
Answer 3: The agreement may be subject to negotiations at the City’s discretion. Concerns with the language used in the sample agreement should not be a deterrent to potential interested offerors from submitting a proposal.
