Assault With Intent to Murder

On 6/16/23 at approximately 11pm, officers were called to the 300 block of S. Maple to conduct a welfare check. Officers discovered a 38-year-old Ann Arbor man alone in a parking lot with significant injuries to his head. The male was transported to University of Michigan hospital.

Further investigation revealed the victim was involved in a physical altercation in the parking lot with another man. Surveillance video in the area captured the altercation, showing the suspect intentionally throwing a large rock at the victim's head while he laid on the ground. The suspect was later identified as 37-year-old Ryan Osborn of Ann Arbor, who was located and arrested at University of Michigan hospital.

On 6/18/23 Osborn was charged with assault with intent to murder. He was arraigned virtually from a hospital bed before Magistrate Nelson and given a $500,000 cash bond. The 38-year-old victim suffered a skull fracture and remains hospitalized in critical condition. The incident is not believed to be random.

All suspects are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
