

Guide to the Right to Renew Ordinance Ann Arbor City Code Chapter 105 Section 8:530

City of Ann Arbor Rental Housing Services | (734) 794-6264 Opt. 1 | rentalhousing@a2gov.org

This ordinance, formerly known as the Early Leasing Ordinance (ELO), determines when and how a landlord must communicate an offer for a successive lease, or notice of non-renewal to a current tenant. The provisions of this ordinance can't be waived by the parties involved.

This ordinance applies to:

- Leases entered, renewed, or renegotiated after March 17, 2024.
- Leases at least 8 months in total duration.
- Leases for units located in Ann Arbor City limits.
- Leases not otherwise subject to restriction of income, age, or rent by a government agency that conflicts with this section.

General Lease Renewal Process Renewal Process Under Section 8:530

180 days into the current lease, landlord must inform tenant of their intent to offer a successive lease.	Tenant has at least 30 days to respond to the landlord's offer	Landlord has 30 days from tenant's acceptance to provide successive lease	Tenant has 10 days to return the signed lease to landlord	Landlord has 10 days to countersign the lease
The offer (which cannot be made earlier than 180 days into a lease) can be via electronic communication, personal delivery, or US mail The offer must include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • name(s) of parties • address of unit • price of rent & fees • term of successive lease • list of changes in terms and conditions from current lease If not offering renewal, notice must include the grounds for good cause not to renew	A landlord can't require a tenant to accept sooner than 30 days after sending the offer Tenant's response can be via electronic communication, personal delivery, or US mail Landlord can't show unit to prospective tenants or lease to another tenant until 210 days into the current lease	Any replacement tenants must be acceptable to the landlord in the landlord's usual screening process	Tenant must return signed lease within 10 days of receiving the lease from landlord	After countersigning the lease, the landlord must immediately return it to the tenant

Relocation Assistance: If landlord does not make good faith offer to renew, landlord shall pay relocation assistance equal to 2-months' rent.

For leases greater than 12 months, this timeline begins the first day of the final 12-month period of the lease.

Good Cause Reasons Not to Renew a Lease

- The tenant did not accept the renewal offer in writing before the deadline.
- The tenant did not return a signed lease to the landlord within 10 days of receipt.
- The owner or a member of the owner's immediate family is going to occupy the unit for a succeeding term.
- The owner isn't going to rent the unit for a succeeding term.
- The landlord can demonstrate a justification for not offering renewal as defined in MCL 600.5714.

Landlord Entry & Leasing to Another Tenant

- Landlord can't enter a unit to show to prospective tenants, or lease to another tenant until 210 days into current lease period.
