Media Release

Bank Robbery

On 5/11/23 at approximately 11am officers responded to the Chase Bank on 100 S. Main for a report of a bank robbery. The investigation revealed a male suspect handed a note to a teller demanding money. No weapon was ever seen, and no one hurt. The suspect fled on foot with an undisclosed amount of money. Officers responded to the area took a 49-year-old suspect into custody within 10 minutes of responding to the call.

Virgil James Ross, 49, was arraigned on 5/12/23 at 14A-1 District Court on the charge of bank robbery. He was denied bond and remains lodged at the Washtenaw County Jail. All suspects are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
