INDECENT EXPOSURE ARREST

On 4/5/23 at approximately 11:15am officers responded to County Farm Park on the 2200 block of Platt Road for a report of a man fondling himself. When officers arrived, a female witness directed them to a picnic table inside the park where officers encountered a 61-year-old Ann Arbor man. An officer observed the man lying across the picnic table face up and actively fondling himself.

As the officer attempted to place the man under arrest, he refused to comply with the officer's verbal commands and attempted to pull away from the officer in an effort to break free. After a brief struggle with the officer, he was placed in handcuffs and taken into custody.

An open beer can was found next to the table. Officers could also smell an odor of intoxicants emitted from the man's breath while he spoke. A preliminary breath test conducted at the Ann Arbor Police Station showed the man had a blood-alcohol level of .210. Further investigation revealed the man had an active warrant for his arrest in Ypsilanti for indecent exposure. After being processed at the station he was transported and lodged at the Washtenaw County Jail pending prosecutor review.
